REITNOUER BUILDS DROP DECK MODELS THAT OFFER THE SAME HAULING CAPACITIES AS OUR LEGENDARY MAXMISER, BIG BUBBA AND BIGGER BUBBA FLATBEDS. With a rear deck height of only 40 inches, DropMiser utilizes a steel front goose neck section bolted to an aluminum rear section that eliminates the fatigue cracks common on aluminum front sections. An improved rear transition design eliminates the splice plate and improves the structural integrity of this crucial area of the main beam. Plus, Reitnouer drop deck models are all available in tandem, spreads or triple-axle configurations, and a two-position slider is available for those customers who need to travel through multiple jurisdictions where axle laws require different settings.

- Reitnouer builds drop deck models that offer the same hauling capacities as our legendary MaxMiser, Big Bubba and Bigger Bubba flatbeds
- Available in slide, lift and fixed axle configurations
- Extended lifespan; improved load and/or fuel efficiency
- Available with the full range of features and options
